BUSVIC BULLETIN ADVERTISING CONDITIONS

1. The rates and requirements set out above form part of the arrangement between the entity seeking to advertise (advertiser) and BAV.
2. All advertisements must be submitted for publication by the submission deadline set out above, provided that if the advertisement is the same for more than one Bulletin, it only needs to be submitted once.
3. BAV may request the advertiser delete any advertising content from a submitted advertisement if it considers, on reasonable grounds, that it is unsuitable for publication.
4. Whether to publish a submitted advertisement, including any advertisement amended in accordance with these conditions, is at the sole discretion of BAV.
5. BAV will notify the advertiser in writing of its decision as to whether to publish the advertisement in the Bulletin.
6. If BAV decides not to publish an advertisement under the previous condition and the advertiser has been invoiced by BAV and paid the amount stipulated, BAV will either return the entire amount of money paid by the advertiser if the payment related to one advertisement to be run in all editions of the Bulletin or return part of the money paid as apportioned to the specific advertisement that won't be published.
7. If BAV decides to publish an advertisement under condition 5, any instructions from the advertiser to amend an advertisement or to cancel publication of the advertisement, must be in writing and received by BAV no later than 2 days after the submission deadline.
8. Provided the advertiser acts in accordance with the previous condition, and either BAV decides against publishing the advertisement with the amendment (and the advertiser doesn't wish to proceed to publication without the amendment) or the publication of the advertisement is cancelled, BAV will, where the advertiser has been invoiced by BAV and paid the amount stipulated, either return the entire amount of money paid by the advertiser if the payment related to one advertisement to be run in all editions of the Bulletin or return part of the money paid as apportioned to the specific advertisement that won't be published.
9. The placement of the advertisement in the Bulletin is at the discretion of BAV, except where specifically agreed otherwise by BAV.
10. BAV does not guarantee that the Bulletin will be issued on the first day of each month in the annual 11 month period, that 2 or more Bulletin editions won't be merged into one, or that an edition or editions won't be cancelled. If an advertiser has requested advertising for all 11 editions, has been invoiced by BAV and paid the amount stipulated, and BAV does any of the foregoing, BAV will return any amount of money paid by the advertiser as apportioned to the specific advertisement or advertisements that won't be published. If an advertiser has requested advertising for specific months on a casual basis, and BAV does any of the foregoing, BAV will have no liability to the advertiser whatsoever.
11. BAV will issue invoices for payment either after BAV receives this form with the details completed by an advertiser seeking to have advertisements run in each edition of the Bulletin or, in all other circumstances, only after the submitted advertisement has been published in the Bulletin.
12. No invoices will be issued by BAV to an advertiser in respect of an advertisement published in a Bulletin where the advertiser is a party to a 'Partnership Agreement' and the advertisement relates to a right of the advertiser to a free advertisement under such an Agreement.
13. Payment of invoices issued under the previous condition must be made no later than 14 days from the date of an invoice, which will include any GST applicable to the supply of services by BAV to be paid by the advertiser.
14. The advertisement content is the sole responsibility of the advertiser.
15. BAV may terminate these arrangements at any time, provided that, if the advertiser has requested advertising for all 11 editions, has been invoiced by BAV and paid the amount stipulated, BAV will return any amount of money paid by the advertiser as apportioned to the specific advertisement or advertisements that won't be published. If the advertiser has requested advertising for specific months on a casual basis, BAV will have no liability to the advertiser whatsoever.
